JML Films LLC has partnered EUE/Sokolow to develop a TV limited series based on true events about the 1979 nuclear meltdown at Three Mile Island.

Executive Producer Jill Murphy Long and Consulting Producer Stacey Griffiths have joined Executive Producers Sam Sokolow and Jeff Cooney and Producer Sheila Hawkins of EUE/Sokolow in Beverly Hills, California to produce a global television event set against political and environmental issues that affect us all.

Recently, EUE/Sokolow produced Genius, with the series' first season following the life of Albert Einstein with Academy Award winners Geoffrey Rush starring as Einstein and Ron Howard directing the pilot episode. Season One of Genius was recognized with ten, 2017 Emmy nominations including "Best Limited Series". Genius has been renewed for a second season, which follows artist Pablo Picasso.

JML Films LLC is based in Portland, Oregon and was founded on the ethics of Justice, Mercy and Love. Jill Murphy Long was born and raised in Pennsylvania and wrote the original script based on her personal experiences.
